ANTITRUST FRONTIERS
22.6.2021
Virtual Conference
4-7 PM (Israel time) | 2-5 PM (CET) | 9 AM – 12 PM (EST)

Organizers: Barak Orbach, Michal Gal, David Gilo, Oren Rigbi

Aaron Edlin
UC Berkeley School of Law

William Kovacic
George Washington University Law School
United Kingdom’s Competition and Markets Authority

Eleanor Fox
New York University School of Law

Nancy Rose
MIT Economics

Herbert Hovenkamp
University of Pennsylvania

Fiona Scott Morton
Yale University School of Management

Frédéric Jenny
ESSEC Business School (Cergy)
OECD

Carl Shapiro
UC Berkeley Haas School of Business and Department of Economics

The Antitrust Frontiers Global Forum is a virtual conference that brings together experts from around the world to discuss the challenges and opportunities presented by the digital economy. This year’s forum will focus on the impact of the digital economy on antitrust law and policy, and will feature presentations by leading scholars and practitioners from academia, government, and the private sector.

The conference will take place on June 22, from 4-7 PM (Israel time) / 2-5 PM (CET) / 9 AM – 12 PM (EST). It is open to all interested parties, and can be accessed through the website: https://afgf.org.il

For more information, please contact: organizers@afgf.org.il

The Antitrust Frontiers Global Forum is organized by the Competition Authority of Israel, in collaboration with the Center for Competition Law and Policy at Tel Aviv University, the Hillel Levin Center for Law and Technology, and the C特价 Center for Interdisciplinary Research of the Law at Tel Aviv University.
The field of digital economics has become one of the most pressing issues for competition law in Israel and around the world, and is expected to continue to occupy the competition authorities and researchers for many years to come. The Global Antitrust Frontiers Forum held in various countries will require a reappraisal of the conventional tools for examining and dealing with market power issues. The Competition Law Forum, which will be held virtually on June 22nd, 2021, will bring together leading researchers and experts from around the world to discuss the impact of digital economics on antitrust law. The forum will be held from 16:00 to 17:45 Israel time, 9:00 to 10:45 EST time, and 14:00 to 15:45 CET time.

Opening Remarks
Barak Orbach, University of Arizona
Michal Halperin, Director General, Israel Competition Authority

Keynote: Managing Digital Competition
Prof. Herbert Hovenkamp, James G. Dinan University Professor, Penn Law and the Wharton School, University of Pennsylvania

Moderator:
Michal Gal, University of Haifa

Managing Global Antitrust Enforcement
Prof. Eleanor Fox, Professor of Law Walter J. Deneren Professor of Trade Regulation, New York University School of Law
Prof. Frederic Jenny, Chairman OECD Competition Committee; Professor of Economics, ESSEC Business School
Prof. William Kovacic, Director, Competition Law Center at George Washington University Law School; Non-Executive Director, United Kingdom’s Competition and Markets Authority

Moderators:
David Gilo, Tel Aviv University
Michal Halperin, Director General, Israel Competition Authority

Could Competition Law Regulate Effectively Digital Platforms?
Prof. Aaron Edlin, Professor of Economics and Richard Jennings Professor of Law, UC Berkeley
Prof. Nancy Rose, Charles P. Kindleberger Professor of Applied Economics MIT Department of Economics
Prof. Fiona Scott Morton, Theodore Nierenberg Professor of Economics, Yale University School of Management
Prof. Carl Shapiro, Professor, UC Berkeley Haas School of Business and Department of Economics

Moderators:
Oren Rigbi, Chief Economist, Israel Competition Authority
Barak Orbach, University of Arizona

https://afgf.org.il